OUR NEWS

SUNDAY 7 SEPTEMBER

We want to share with you our plans for a really exciting new service. As we gather back after the summer, at our Sunday 10am service on 7 September, we want to provide space to reconnect. There'll be breakfast in the Parish Centre from 9:30am before the service, and as well as thinking about God's plans for the year ahead, the blessing of bags will return by popular request! Do invite your friends – a great opportunity to share church.

BIKE n HIKE – 13 SEPTEMBER anytime between 9am-5pm

- Bike: Cycle through the countryside, stopping at churches along the way.
- Hike: Enjoy a refreshing walk to the more local churches.
- Drive: For the first time, you can now drive to visit those more distant churches you've always wanted to see inside! You can cover more ground and explore a wider range of historic buildings.
- The goal is to visit several churches of your choice (details supplied) and get sponsored for taking part.
- If you're unable to take part this year, you can still contribute by sponsoring someone who is participating. We receive 50% of all money raised and BHHCT 50%. See Penny for full details.

VISTORS TO ST MARY'S SATURDAY 13 SEPT

Could you spare an hour to sit at St Mary's on 13 September to sign participant's cards for the bike n Hike. We are short of help, if you are available, please put your name of the list; which is on the noticeboard just inside St Martin's or see Penny.
